

RISKY vs. RELIABLE IT SERVICE PROVIDER

A good, dedicated IT service provider gives you the peace of mind you need to focus on business growth. But, would you know if your current IT support system is really the right fit for your business?

If you aren't an expert in IT services it can be hard to tell.

This infographic gives you an overview of what you should expect from a great IT service provider, regardless of whether your business needs an internal IT resource or an outsourced IT team.

RISKY IT SERVICE PROVIDER

Non-customized service contract

Offers standard packages

Reacts to issues as they arise (break-fix service model)

Acts when vulnerabilities are exposed

Provides one-off solutions that do not integrate

Aligns your technology with the solutions they have available

Responds to your questions or concerns according to their availability

RELIABLE IT SERVICE PROVIDER

Evaluates your current IT environment before making any recommendations

Provides a customized solution based on your business' needs and budget

Delivers a prioritized plan for addressing problems in your IT environment

Proactively identifies technology risks

Centralizes your IT services

Aligns your technology with your business goals

Offers reliable and responsive customer service
